American Urological Association (AUA) Disclosure Form for Authors

The AUA requires that prior to participating in programs all individuals make full disclosure of relationships, business transactions, presentations or publications related to healthcare or AUA activities. The time frame for this reporting is that of the work itself, from the initial conception and planning to the present. If you have questions, please review the AUA Principles, Policies and Procedures for Managing Conflicts of Interest or the Frequently Asked Questions document.

Each disclosure begins by asking the following questions:

1. To whom does this disclosure apply?
   - Self
   - Family
   - Business Partner

2. What is the name of company or organization?

3. Is this a financial relationship?
   - Yes
     Financial relationships are those relationships in which individuals benefit by receiving a salary, royalty, intellectual property rights, consulting fee, honoraria, ownership interest (e.g., stocks, stock options or other ownership interest, excluding diversified mutual funds), or other financial benefit. Financial relationships consist of employment, management position, independent contractor (including contracted research), consulting, speaking and teaching, membership on advisory committees or review panels, board membership, and other activities from which remuneration is received, or expected.
   - No
     Relationships should be reported regardless of whether or not compensation was received.

4. What is the type of relationship?
   All relationships in commercial interests should be reported. A commercial interest is any entity producing, marketing, re-selling or distributing healthcare goods or services consumed by, or used, on patients.
